Speak Up Citizens . . .

by Jody Beavers

Question: Do you think the Police Department should enforce the two-hour parking law downtown, or do you think they should cite merchants and employees only?

Larry Daniels
125 E. Miramonte

"I haven't been driving long, but I have been aware of the parking problem for some time. I think the parking law should be enforced. The merchants and employees should not be allowed to use the parking spaces all day."

Linda Cline
154 E. Sierra Madre Blvd.

"Yes, definitely, the people of Sierra Madre, or I should say shopping people, should be able to complete their shopping in two hours, and vacate their spaces for other shoppers."

Wayne Bartolme
911 Fallen Leaf

I do most certainly think that the two-hour parking limit should be enforced. I know from experience that when trying to park, you just can't, and if you notice, the same cars are parked in the same place.

Summer Vacation Bible School Closes At Bethany

The annual Daily Vacation Bible School held at Bethany Church of Sierra Madre, started off June 17 with a parade, made up of participants of Bible School, ended June 28 and approximately 260 children dispersed with the happy memories of a very successful session of Vacation Bible School.

Over 60 people assisted as staff members under the direction of Rev. Ankeny, director of Christian education. The well planned program included all children from the first to sixth grades.

The parade theme for opening day was centered around "space" and its place in the life of the Christian. The highlight of the handcraft program was the designing and making of space helmets which the children entered into with unmatched enthusiasm.

On the last day of Bible School each person presented his own creation and version of space helmets. They were judged in three different age groups. The winners were: First and second grade, Shelly Davis and Charles Myers; third and fourth grades, Lynn Bohl and Connie Williams; fifth and sixth grades, Lois Schilberg and Artie Ower. The judges were Mr. and Mrs. James Stewart.

A Proud Nation

"... the greatest question was decided which ever was debated in America; and a greater perhaps never was, nor will be, decided among men. A resolution was passed without one dissenting colony, that those United Colonies are, and of right ought to be, free and independent states."

Thus wrote John Adams; and on July 4, 1776, the Continental Congress adopted the Declaration of Independence.

A proud nation was born.

The Founding fathers mutually pledged "our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honour."

The Fourth of July, 1776, was a day of dedication, passion, and pride in nation, its heritage, and its future. We will celebrate the Fourth on Thursday of this week.

But times have changed.

We have grown, prospered, learned sophistications, enjoyed vast material progress.

Is the old pride, the old sense of faith in nation and its destiny, the old courage yet with us?

Each must answer that question for himself.

Ponder deeply and honestly.

If the old vitality is gone, then our nation is poorer, weaker and smaller.

Parish Mission Builders at Bethany Lutheran Church

The new four young ladies at the Bethany Lutheran Church are Parish Mission Builders. These four young college students, along with 24 other college students from the American Lutheran Church are giving of their time and talents to the church for ten weeks this summer. Each team of four is assigned three churches, spending three weeks in each church.

Team No. 7, presently working at Bethany Lutheran in East Pasadena, also will spend three weeks in Cypress, Calif., assisting in a new mission congregation of the American Lutheran Church, and from there will travel to Salt Lake City, Utah, where they will finish their work in one of the Lutheran Churches in the Salt Lake area.

Rev. Niels C. Carlsen, the pastor of Bethany Lutheran, has nothing but praise for the ability and dedication of these young ladies. He has them working from 8:30 a.m. to 10 p.m., six days a week. They are doing survey work, new member visitation, parish visitation and working with the youth program of the church. Although the students came from all parts of the United States and Canada, Team No. 7 is loaded with Wisconsinites. Janet Evenson, Dorothy Barber and Marleen Hansen are from Wisconsin, while the team captain, Marcia Brenton, hails from Kansas City, Mo. If you should hear a knock on your door and be greeted by a friendly greeting, "We are parish mission builders," give them a warm California welcome.

Merchants Plan To Let the World Know of Existence

Each Shop Is Unique In Its Own Line: Expanding For Shopping Enjoyment

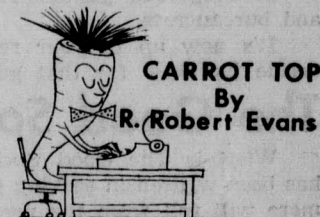

Montecito merchants this week made its first step forward in a promotional plan to acquaint the people of this area with Montecito Plaza, an area of unique shops, heretofore satisfied with the day-to-day activity, but now ready to introduce themselves to the 28,000 potential shoppers of the Sierra Madre area.

Under the capable leadership of such men as Al Summan and Sewall Clark, the plans for this area will go forward with leaps and bounds.

The first step in the proposed forward move is the installation of a large sign on the first building of the block, placed on the building at the rear of the city parking lot at the corner of Baldwin and Montecito . . . telling the public that, we of the Montecito Plaza "Welcome You."

Besides those below shown, Montecito Plaza is also the home of Sierra Madre's prime manufacturing plant, Sierra Engineering, employing some 500 employees throughout the year. This area is also the home of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Harry L. Embree Post 3208, Sierra Madre's only lumber yard, the Griffin Lumber Company, Sierra Madre's only ice plant, doctors, a garage, and several business, little known about, except by the faithful customers that they have maintained over the past many years.

Jumping Jehosaphat, another number to remember! Is there no end to the numbers the government will hang on us? Already, you could do all the business the average man needs to do to live if you forgot your name entirely.

A friend of mine was telling me his first experience with multi-digit numbers was when he enlisted in the Navy to fight the war that was to make the world safe for democracy.

One day he was good old Bill; the next he was A-345 668-9-12. He said that they knew that he couldn't remember his number, so they put it on a metal tag and hung it around his neck. It was a good thing they did; for, without it, he couldn't cash his $7 paycheck, draw a new pair or shoes, or get vaccinated.

Then came the depression to produce the most irksome number of all . . . your Social Security number, without which you couldn't get a job the rest of your life. I once met a man who I thought rivaled Einstein for mental achievement. He could quote his Social Security number without looking at his card! Some people can't even read it.

And there's one number without which you can get into more trouble than Billie Sol Estes did. That's your driver's license number. It's essential if you need to cash a check at the market for the day's vitals or even cash your paycheck, if you get one, in a strange bank. Nowadays some banks want your fingerprint and an uncomplimentary identification photo along with the number.

At the bank I'll wager you could sign your name as McGillicuddy or Zybiss if you knew your account number (and it only comes in six or seven digits). The time will come when a bank teller couldn't care less what your name is.

And don't forget the digits when you use the telephone. With direct dialing you might get Snohomish, Washington, or Terre Haute, Indiana, instead of Covina as a penalty for forgetting your area code numbers. Never mind the name . . . get the number right!

You shouldn't venture too far from home without going through a refresher course in numbers. If you travel by car and use a credit card, the service station attendant may ask your auto registration number, complete with those tricky prefixes. The motel clerk will insist you list it when you register for the night.

Editorially Speaking....

How Far

It is a bit hard to understand how a deficit-ridden government can make money by reducing its income without reducing costs at the same time.

It's like taking a pay cut to help pay your bills, only the Washington, D.C., propagandists say it will work.

Powerful government officials are firm in their miracle-working statements that the Federal government can increase spending, reduce overall tax collections by a total of about $10 billion, and, at the same time, prevent more inflation.

This view must be given due respect and consideration. But so must the views of those who think it utterly mistaken.

Long-term deficit spending, has had two major results. One is a desperate turn to printing-press money — when, as in Germany following the First World War, it took a wheelbarrow full of currency to buy a loaf of bread.

The other result is to impose price and wage controls which are followed, as surely as night follows day, by absolute government control of the entire economic system.

And that means control of everything of any consequence that a person, or a business, or a group does and is allowed to do.

Regimentation. A dangerous gamble is sought by those politicians and bureaucrats.

It's now up to your representatives in Congress to decide just how far that gamble will be allowed to go.

The Good Society

What is The Good Society? Many a profound book has been written in seeking to answer that question, many more will roll from the presses as the years spin by.

But it can be answered, in essence, in very brief and simple terms. It is a society in which each individual has the inalienable right to choose his path in life within a framework of equitable laws designed to prevent him from encroaching upon this same right in others. No law can make men equal — but law can guarantee equality of opportunity.

It is, above all, a society in which individual freedom is limited by, and only by, the right of a people as a whole to maintain, secure and protect itself.

It is a society which fully recognizes the Jeffersonian maxim that government is best which governs least. Freedom without fear; strength without coercion; pride without arrogance; and an endless sense of the worth of man, not only in the mass but in the one — these are marks of The Good Society.

From the point of view of the taxpayer, it doesn't make a great deal of difference who employs the tax-collecting hand that empties his pockets. What counts is what he has left after these collectors get through — whether they come from the federal government, the states, counties, municipalities, sewer or water districts, or wherever.

Take the hubbub over federal tax reduction — which begins to look more and more like a tempest in a teapot. Even if federal taxes were reduced on an overall basis, what good would that do if increased taxes at other governmental levels offset or more than offset the savings. That's a real possibility, as the clamor for increased and new state taxes in this legislative year has amply demonstrated. Even federal taxes are going up — the social security levies were increased January 1, and further increases are coming up.

We've got to look at the whole tax picture — not just one part of it.

The Old Fourth!

The Fourth of July — Independence Day! What a world of color, of drama, of history, those few little words bring to mind, and especially to those of an age who can remember what the Fourth used to mean.

It was a day of fun, of course. There were games, complete with prizes for young and old alike, running the gamut from three-legged races to shooting matches. There were the family picnics, and sturdy old tables groaned under them. There were the fireworks, now banned almost everywhere, except in formal displays, for safety reasons. There were the orators — they ran the full gamut from good to indifferent to bad, but they all had one thing in common — dedication, passion, pride in nation, its heritage, and its future. There were the great brass bands, the members standing tall in their pressed, polished uniforms. There were the roll calls of the towering names that had provided leadership in molding and making a nation fit to stand with any nation — Washington, Madison, Jefferson, the Adamsons, Franklin . . . And the flags, proud against the sky, flew everywhere.

We still celebrate the Fourth. It's still a national holiday. But something vital has gone out of it. Whatever the reason, the nation is poorer, weaker and smaller because of that. Times have changed. We have grown, prospered, learned sophistications, enjoyed vast material progress. But is the old pride, the old sense of faith in nation and in its destiny, the old courage, still with us?

Each must answer that question for himself. But let him ponder deeply and honestly before answering as another Fourth comes near.

Freedom At Any Price

by Henry V. Witty

"Dictionary of American Slang" — a liberal darling, protected and justified under the pseudo-cloak of "academic freedom," supported by the State Board of Education, and defended by the executive board of the California Teachers' Association!

Paul Coates, in referring to this guide-book on immorality, states in glowing terms: "It is a standard reference work for students and is a rich source of information on the language we speak."

Let us consider this so-called reference book which is fostered, valued, and cherished by the champions of moral suicide. The California Federation of Republican Women has adopted a resolution declaring "The Dictionary of American Slang" unfit to appear in school libraries. The resolution also states that quotes from this book cannot be sent through the mail.

This aggregation of smut and filth was compiled and edited by Harold Stewart, Ph.D., and Stuart Berg Flexner, M.A. The basic source of information is best illustrated by the editor's own comment following the definition of "Holy Cow!" Pointing out that this expression is a euphemism for "Holy Christ," the editor says, "Although this term is considered to be very popular among teenagers, no self-respecting, red-blooded teenager would dare use such a weak oath."

This columnist challenges the newspapers and other news media to publish and make known the profanities and sex terms included in this book. The newspapers will not and cannot print them; yet they are adjudged by some as fit material for the pious minds of our high school children.

Assemblyman E. Richard Barnes, 78th District, San Diego County, has this to say concerning the subject: "With reference to the book 'Dictionary of American Slang,' I find it objectionable because of its uninhibited description of sexual matters, including the sexual deviations; its emphasis on the names and language connected with the acquisition and use of narcotics; its long list of terms derogatory of minority ethnic groups; and the anti-religious nature of many of the definitions."

"In my mind," continues Assemblyman Barnes, "the sole issue is this: Has the prevalence of smut literature in our society become so pronounced and extreme that it is necessary to provide our high school boys and girls with definitions of these terms?"

"Language is merely a matter of communication and it seems to me that a teenager does not need to be familiarized with the intimate terms of sexual deviation, acquisition and use of narcotics, and all of the degrading aspersions which may be cast at Negroes, Jews, and other minority group members."

Dr. Max Rafferty, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, has this to say: "The Dictionary of American Slang" does not belong on the shelves or in the curriculum of the schools."

The Superintendent calls the smutty dictionary " . . . a practicing handbook of sexual perversion . . . pure

Letters To The Editor . . .

Dear Editor:

A few of the real old timers in S.M. (Mrs. L. P. Grant, Gordon McMillen, Rudy Hartman and others) may be saddened to learn of the death of (my brother) Dale W. Langley on June 21.

Funeral services were held at the Forest Lawn Memorial Park, Hollywood Hills, at noon, June 25.

I have before me a "To Whom It May Concern" signed by George E. Morgridge, one-time owner of the S.M. News, dated Feb. 25, 1927 concerning Dale.

Our father moved to S.M. in 1911. Dale "grew up" on the S.M. News (the "Squeek"). He was S.M.'s only barber for many, many years.

filth and obscenity."

Yet, individuals imbued with an over abundance of liberality shake their heads and warn us of the consequences which will result from censorship. We must not, they imply, set up safeguards for the morals of our children. These same people also tell us that this book filled with "filth and obscenity" is an asset to inquiring young minds.

These "weirdies" are running true to form — as always, they are liberal with someone else's possessions. In this case, it is our children and grandchildren with whose lives they are tampering.

Don Carpenter of the Montrose Ledger gives us the answer: " . . . Inquiring young minds might like to experiment with matches and gasoline or poke a finger at a rattlesnake or down a bigger of iodine. Physically our young people are protected; way shouldn't they be protected mentally from such poison as this book?"

Stephanie Turner Leaves July 9 For EIL Program

Stephanie Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph N. Turner of 265 Rancho Road, Sierra Madre, will leave July 9 and travel by rail to Port of Embarkation at Houston, Texas, to go abroad for the 1963 summer program of the Experiment in International Living.

This program is an independent, non-profit organization in the field of international education which helps to promote international understanding by a person-to-person approach. Since its founding in 1932, the Experiment has sent more than 15,500 Americans abroad to learn how peoples of other countries think, act and live. This year, some 2,000 will travel to 36 countries on five continents. Each of these Experimenters will live for a month as a member of a foreign family and will spend another month travelling about the country visited.

Nobody can be blamed for following the line of least resistance — if it happens to be a fish line.

Some people fret because they can't meet expenses, but pity those who meet them on every hand.

Memorial Service For A. S. Myers,

Memorial services were held Saturday, June 29 at the Congregational Church in Sierra Madre with the Rev. George Lindsay officiating, for Albert S. Myers, age 84, of 101 Esperanza, who passed away Tuesday, June 25 at Sawtell Veterans Hospital.

Mr. Myers was born in Swanton, New Jersey and came to Sierra Madre in 1927 as an electrical engineer. He was a former Councilman, former Mayor and the first city manager, from 1931 to 1937. Mr. Myers was also a veteran of the Spanish-American War. He is survived by his wife, Ethel; a son, Sellwyn Myers of Sierra Madre, and a daughter, Alberta McBride of Pasadena. There are five grandchildren.

Graft is the net result when a private citizen seeks special privileges at public expense.

Don't bet on the fellow who spends his time telling what he is going to do tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Seney of Seattle, Washington presented the Herbert A. Thews of 70 Windsor Lane with their first great grandchild. The new member of the family tree weighed in at seven pounds and one-half ounce, and has been named Michael Frederick. Michael's father is a professor at the University of Seattle.

SENATE REPORT

By SENATOR
THOMAS M. REES

1963 LEGISLATIVE SESSION BECOMES HISTORY
Well, the 1963 Legislative Session is now history and, as predicted, ended with one of the greatest log jams in the history of California. Major legislation, important to all of the people of our state, died at midnight Friday because of lack of time.

Major problems have been left unresolved, the main one being the aid to the local school districts. With the failure of the Senate to act on the Governor's tax acceleration program, the leadership on budget matters was forced to slash all new appropriations, including aid to the local school districts and increased salaries of the academic personnel in our State colleges and universities.

The prediction is, that because of the importance of vital programs lost, the Governor will call a special session of the Legislature to discuss primarily taxes and schools.

My own legislative program was generally successful, although the Southern California Mass Rapid Transit Act, the major bill which would have solved the bumbling in rapid transit in Los Angeles County, was lost in the Assembly. Unfortunately, this bill, so important to our county, became the foil in an unprecedented session of petty personal politics. This bill was only moved out of the Assembly Ways and Means Committee after 10 p.m. Friday and the leadership never gave the bill a chance to be voted upon by the full Assembly.

Senate Bill 325, my major air pollution legislation, passed Friday night. This bill puts teeth into the current regulations requiring anti-air pollution devices on automobiles and would set up, with the approval of the Board of Supervisors, a tough inspection system in our county.

Also approved was my major vocational high schools bill which authorizes county-wide vocational high schools in which our youngsters can be well on their way towards learning a trade or profession by the time they have graduated from high school.

Another bill, S. B. 1463, gives the Los Angeles County taxpayer a break in protesting his tax assessments to the Board of Supervisors. Previously, tax bills were received in October, already two months beyond the time in which protests could be made. Under my legislation, the taxpayer would have nearly five months in which to protest after receiving his tax bill.

All in all, it was a strange session—perhaps the slowest starting and the quickest finishing yet seen. Personally, as the Senator from county, I received the complete cooperation of my fellow Senators in regards to the vital programs for Los Angeles.

Although the workload of State Senator from Los Angeles County is the heaviest in the Capitol—one voice speaking for our county in the Senate—I feel that we were given and received the maximum cooperation in the development of a program for our community.

Hollywood Bowl Reservations Still Available

By Toni Maurin

Have you always wanted to go to the Hollywood Bowl, but it just didn't seem worth the effort? If you could go driving but a few miles in no traffic, would it be worth it? If you had your tickets mailed to you so that you wouldn't even have to leave the house, would it be worth it? Of course it would, and if you act now—TODAY—you will still have an opportunity to join the Foothill Hollywood Bowl Committee's "Rodgers and Hammerstein Night" for Saturday, July 13.

Rodgers and Hammerstein need no introduction in this country. The music they have given us IS America. There is no one who conveys the music any more enjoyably than Johnny Green. Jean Fenn will lend her soprano voice to the concert, as well as Peggy Coburn, Chris Lachona, Richard Fredericks and the Roger Wagner Chorus. Music as we love it, both new and old.

The Foothill Hollywood Bowl Committee has reserved seats in the middle of the $2.50 section and in the middle of the $1.50 section. For every bus fare you may add $1. Buses will leave promptly at 6:30 p.m. from across the street from Arcadia Post Office.

Pack a picnic lunch and eat at the Bowl at one of the many picnic areas. Ride the moving staircase to your seat level, and enjoy an evening under the stars that you will not want to forget for a long time.

Reservations may still be made if you act today. Make your checks payable to the Foothill Hollywood Bowl Committee, and mail by June 28 to Mrs. Malcolm Harris, 1336 Oak Meadow Road, Arcadia, California. Phone EL 5-1484.

NEW MOEN Lavatory Dialset Faucet brings new beauty and convenience to the home. User simply sets Lucite dial to exact temperature desired, then pulls dial in or out to adjust flow. Special construction permits unique serviceability, allows company to extend broad guarantee.

Dripping Faucets Proved Not Main Water Wasters

Dripping faucets are really as common as supposed—and they are far from being the biggest waster of water. A new study reveals that the biggest waste comes in getting ready to use water!—adjusting handles to desired temperature. However, we've come a long way toward solving the problem.

Most modern homes today are equipped with single-handle faucets such as Moen model shown here. To operate this beautiful fixture, the user simply twists the one control knob to the exact water temperature desired... pulls the knob to turn on the water to the exact flow desired... pushes the knob to turn it off, leaving it at the same temperature.

Adjusting two handles is eliminated, and a significant amount of water is saved. And there is a corresponding saving in fuel costs in heating water.

With clean lines, gleaming chromium finish and the jewel-like Lucite control knob, Moen lavatory faucets add a distinctive, modern appearance to every bath and powder room. In addition, there is extra convenience with Dialset's patented construction.

All moving parts are contained in a completely sealed, self-lubricated cartridge that's guaranteed for a full year. Thereafter, should anything go wrong, Moen will supply a new cartridge for only $2 to make the unit work like new.

Anyone with a screwdriver can install the new cartridge in minutes. And, best of all, this beautiful Moen faucet costs no more than a good, old-fashioned double-handle model. You may see the new Moen lavatory faucet at Gem Plumbing, Inc.

THE SECRET INGREDIENT IN OUR FRIED CHICKEN...IS CHAS. EATON!

You may think our fried chicken is so delicious because it's dipped in seasoned rice flour before frying. You're right. But it's also because Chas. Eaton is a cantankerous, stubborn, old-fashioned owner who insists on quality in everything we do. He's absolutely impossible, but you should taste what a difference it makes in the food!

SIERRA MADRE LEAGUE BASEBALL SCORES

With the conclusion of the June 22 games and an unscheduled June 24 play-off, the Sierra Madre Little League has officially completed its playing season. The first of the two Saturday games was a great contest between the two top Little League teams tied for first, the Hartman Yankees managed by Brian McGoldrick and the Osti Orioles managed by Claude Brown, with the Orioles winning it 3-0 and becoming the 1963 Little League champions. The second game, a rain-out repeat, found the Arnold's & Roess Braves barely squeaking around the 7-UP Indians with a score of 4-3. This Braves victory made a play-off for fourth place necessary, so June 24 the Al Foxton Dodgers faced the Braves and were defeated, 10-7. The final Little League standings for 1963 season are:

Team	W.	L.
Osti Orioles	12	4
Hartman Yankees	11	5
Toy & Patio Red Sox	8	7
Arnold's & Roess	8	8
Braves	7	9
Al Foxton Dodgers	7	9
7-UP Indians	1	13

Due to Little League's national-wide organization, tournament games between the Little League All Stars from Sierra Madre and the surrounding area will be played. From the 26 boys nominated from the six S.M. Little League teams, 14 boys with four alternates will be chosen to make up S.M. All Stars. Since the Orioles won the pennant, Claude Brown will manage and Brian McGoldrick will coach these boys.

This year Sierra Madre is honored to host three of these local play-offs. Followed by district, country, state and western states play-offs, winning all these the Sierra Madre All Stars possibly could play in the finals at Williamsport, Pennsylvania, the National Little League Headquarters. The important first step in this contest will be held July 18, July 19, at 5:30 p.m., and July 20 at 4:30 p.m. on Heasley Field at Sierra Vista Park in Sierra Madre. On hand to staff this event will be Bill Bennet and George Throop giving the play-by-play announcing; Harry Dietrich keeping the official score, and umpiring with three men furnished for each game by Tom O'Connell's Umpire Service. Jeanette Austad with her food committee will be there to serve goodies from the Diamond Diner. Bob Osti with his work committee is busy putting the field in extra special apple-pie order. A crowd of 400 people, according to previous games, will be on hand to watch this exciting tournament. Everyone in town is urged to attend and cheer our Little Leaguers on to Williamsport!

The Babe Ruth teams, with boys from 13 to 15 years, have been playing good ball at Sierra Mesa Field since June 1. Games are played Mondays through Thursdays at 5:30 p.m. The teams will play through July 27. Make a note of the following schedule and follow your favorite team: Senators play July 8, 11, 16, 17, 23 and 25. White Sox play July 8, 10, 15, 17, 22 and 24. Giants play July 9, 11, 15, 18 and 23.

Cardinals play July 9, 10, 16, 18, 22 and 25.

Babe Ruth standings till June 27:

Team	W.	L.	T.
Sierra Engineering	5	3	1
White Sox	4	3	2
Senators	4	3	2
Highlander	3	3	2
Cardinals	3	3	2
Kiwanis Giants	2	5	1

SPORTS

AS Hank Ives SEES IT

ISN'T IT ABOUT TIME

THAT — Tennis in the United States regains the stature it held in the Tilden, Vines, Kramer hey days?

THAT the hoods be run out of boxing?

THAT the true story of Wilbur John's sudden exodus from UCLA as Athletic Director be told?

THAT the Angels win a game the easy way?

THAT Sandy Koufax be given a "day" at Dodger Stadium? Yes, Buzze, we know it's against Dodger policy, but how many of your pitchers have hurled two no-hitters recently?

THAT Leon Wagner finds the consistent home run range at Chavez Ravine?

THAT horse owners are forced to declare when their hayburners are out merely for a gallop? As it is they are cheating the poor ignorants who blow a deuce on a nag not even trying.

THAT major golf tournaments be cut down to one a month instead of virtually every week?

THAT Sugar Ray Robinson and Bobo Olson call it quits from the ring?

THAT Lee Walls be given a chance to catch a regular game?

THAT an athlete speaking at a sports banquet opens up with something besides "It's a pleasure to be here?"

TIME OUT FOR A SHORT JOKE . . .

It seems a member of a men's foursome approached a women's foursome on the seventh tee at Brookside and asked politely:

"Would you girls mind if we shoot through? My partner's hardware store is on fire."

NOW ISN'T IT ABOUT TIME

THAT wrestlers be forced to join the actors' guild so that their stories can go on the drama instead of the sports page?

THAT OLD HANKUS has at least one daily-double winner at Hollywood Park? That Warren Giles appoint Al Barlick as umpire in chief of the men in blue in the National League?

THAT interleague play between the National and American League become a reality? After all, it's just a question of time. And can't you see Chavez Ravine rocking with patrons when the Dodgers and Angels tangle in a real live league game?

THAT the U.S. track and field forces quit warring?

THAT TV fights pit name boxers?

THAT a disgruntled athlete admits that he was NOT "misquoted?"

THAT the Rose Bowl is filled for a Jr. Rose Bowl encounter?

THAT football at least waits until August before starting the season. Last week's East-West game in Buffalo must have been the earliest starting time in history.

THAT the nation's sports fans realize that USC has taken over as the number one athletic institution? And that goes for scribes

EAST of the Mississippi. THAT Bo Belinsky reports to Irv Noren's Hawaiian Islanders and starts working his way back to the Angels?

THAT we start taking the Chicago White Sox seriously? And maybe the Cubs.

THAT the Rams win more than they lose?

THAT the Angel's flashy rookie Jim Fregosi is recognized as one of the finest shortstops in the league, and a real comer?

THAT NFL teams go big time like baseball and announce paid attendance instead of counting the bands and employees in with public?

THAT the San Francisco 49ers lived up to their promise, stopped fighting among themselves, and got in the thick of the Western Division race.

THAT the batters start catching up with the hurlers in the majors before a new record for low hit games is set? The public enjoys a game with some action. THAT we sign off for another week?

If you're going overseas, there'll be another number to commit to memory. It will be your passport number which you may be required to write 25 or 30 times a day.

—CT—

And please don't try to pay your income tax, or try to open a savings account for one of the family, or invest in the stock market unless you have your Social Security number on the tip of your tongue.

—CT—

Now comes Postmaster Louk's announcement in last week's issue on the detailed instructions about the new "ZIP" program. It will, the government insists, cut the costs of the handling of mail, saving money for us taxpayers.

—CT—

But I would like the opportunity of telling the Post Office Department that I am not the least bit interested in saving a few pennies on my tax bill at the cost of getting another number to remember. I've got enough already.

—CT—

And, moreover, my mail comes fast enough. I get but few letters, except on the first of the month, and they get here plenty fast. The junk mail I get almost every week, and they always reach me before the spectacular offerings of bargains expire.

—CT—

And my outgoing mail is handled too fast as things are. The addressees always gets my checks in time to get them to the bank before I can rush down there to make a covering deposit.

—CT—

If the mail gets any faster and any more efficient, and the telephone companies come up with some more of those $1 rates after nine, I will call instead of write, providing I can remember their number.

—CT—

In closing the column for this week, I want to send a special message to one particular person on Sierra Madre Blvd., and I am sure he knows who he is... The message: You cannot antagonize and influence at the same time... think it over, and I do mean THINK. Have fun on the 4th and I look forward to seeing you around, I hope, I hope, I hope.

Atlas Federal Savers Receive Record Dividends

Atlas Federal Savings and Loan Association has paid second quarter dividends to savers at the rate of 4.8%.
This was announced by the association's president, Bruce V. Reagan.
"Our savers," said Reagan,
"have received or been credited with the largest earnings payment in our history.
These high earnings are due to Atlas Federal's having secured a full share of the sound home loans on the current market, as well as increased savings from our growing number of savers.
"We are convinced that our savers prefer that we maintain the high quality of our investment portfolio rather than abandon sound lending policies to pay out higher earnings."

At the same interview,
Roger A. Gurley, Atlas Federal Savings' executive vice president, stated, "After reviewing our favorable prospects for the coming months, we consider our planned rate of 4.8% for the third quarter to be consistent with our traditionally sound management policies. Both the flow of savings and the demand for home loans continue to be highly satisfactory due,
we believe, to Atlas Federal's long experience in promoting thrift and to our new

After much careful planning, synchronizing of watches, calendars, social engagements, and vacation times, guess what? We did it again! We are both going to be out of town at the same time!

We had a true meeting of hearts and minds, an unwritten contract, a mutual understanding that one of us would remain on the hill equipped with typewriter, erasers, telephone bill paid, and a full pot of coffee in order to bring to you this enlightened and enlightening journalistic accomplishment.

Local Mental Health Directors At Conference

Directors and program chiefs for the 20 state-local mental health programs operating under the Short-Doyle Act met in San Francisco Monday to discuss the opportunities for expanding local services now that the Legislature has approved amendments to the Act boosting state financial aid to local programs.

Sponsored by Senator Alan Short of San Joaquin County and Assemblyman Jerome R. Waldie of Contra Costa County, the amendments increase the state share of community mental health services from 50 to 75 percent, and remove limitations in the original, 1957 legislation.

The new amendments are expected to pave the way for important new advances in the size and scope of local services. At the same time, it will help move psychiatric treatment into closer alignment with modern concepts stressing the importance of early treatment close to home and family.

There are currently 20 local programs providing direct mental health services to 30,000 Californians.

The Conference of Local Mental Health Directors in its Monday meeting faces at least one major problem in mapping plans for expansion of local services: While the Legislature approved the Short-Doyle amendments broadening the program, in its budget-stripping action it also took away the $2 million provided to finance it.

The meeting was in the San Francisco Health Department quarters, 101 Grove St.

ment. We forgot two small, insignificant yet governing factors — our husbands?!? They have demitised, ravaged, torn asunder, and rode rough-shod over what were probably the best-laid plans we have yet laid! See the end of this heart-breaking story.

First Campout

Vivian Mead, two of her children, Malcolm and Camille, and her sister and her two children, spent an enjoyable ten days at Yosemite National Park. This was the first camping experience for the family. Because of the time of year, there was abundant water in the many streams and falls. The group made the traditional trek to the top of Vernal Falls and hiked to Sentinel Point. They made the acquaintance of many bears of all sizes — a nodding acquaintance, that is! Although there was much snow on the ground, our campers were delighted to find many wild flowers in bloom. The weather was lovely, with one day's rain adding a little excitement. Ben Mead and the other children, Carole and Mark, held down the home front.

Job's Daughters

Thursday, June 27, a group of eager young ladies departed by chartered bus for Oakland to attend the annual convention of the International Order of Job's Daughters. The contingent consisted of 35 girls and 7 adult chaperones from Bethel No. 128 Lamanda Park. Girls from Hastings Ranch were Suzanne Davis, Diana Pursley, Jan Sullivan, Nadine Livingston, Carol and Pam Cairncross, Lois Williams, and Jan Brown. Mrs. Robert J. Williams and Mrs. Reynolds Cairncross were among the adult chaperones. They were in Oakland for four days and, while there, their bus took them on a tour of the Bay area.

Trip for Toms

Washington, D.C., was the first stop for Mr. and Mrs. Ron Toms on a combination business and pleasure trip. After touring the capitol, they visited relatives in Detroit, Michigan.

Swim 'n Bridge

Las Companeras members will meet for a pot-luck luncheon, swimming, and bridge at the home of Margie Grube. This is the group's first summer party of the year. Party chairman, Helen Fay, is making the arrangements.

Summer Visitor

New Ranchites, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Brown, are entertaining his brother, Steve, this summer. Steve hails from Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

Vive La France

There is no better place to learn the French language than the country wherein it is spoken! Cheryl Knudsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Knudsen, and four other Mayfield High graduates are touring France under the tutelage and chaperonage of their French teacher. The group will be gone for six weeks. They first flew to Copenhagen for three days, and while there, sent postcards home. This wouldn't be unusual except that they were in the group picture on the cards.

From Copenhagen, the girls went to Paris where they took all of the sight-seeing trips. The rest of the sojourn in France will be spent traveling around the countryside in a rented car.

Since one of the main purposes of the trip is to perfect the girls' ability to speak French fluently, no English will be allowed (However, so far all communications home have been in English.) C'est la Vie!!!

Wisconsin to Hawaii

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Dalvit and children have been visiting the John Erbach family, The Davits, who are from Beloit, Wisconsin, are now at home in Honolulu Hawaii. Lewis is the assistant conductor of the Honolulu Symphony Orchestra and will be working under the famous George Barati. Patricia (Mrs. Dalvit) will play first violin in the orchestra.

Since this was the first western visit of the Dalvi family, their hosts took them on the grand tour. They especially enjoyed Lake Arrowhead, Balboa and the Farmers' Market.

Denification for no particular reason: SINIS TROSE is a botanical term meaning to do the twist — of all things!

Mediterranean Cruise

Mrs. Karl Gerike has returned from another fabulous trip. After seeing the Orient last year, she decided to tour the Mediterranean this spring. She visited Spain, France, and Italy and spent time exploring Rome, Florence, Venice, Nice, Cannes, Andorra, and Naples.

Since no tour of this sort is complete without a visit

Marge's spouse, Neal, announced — yet, heralded — the news that the Rowleys were going to spend a long weekend at the beach... this along with the exciting news that Emily's spouse, William, is expecting her to join him for a long weekend in San Bernardino at the American Legion State Convention. Now all this we could manage without too much difficulty, but we are so used to giving our Sunday in the service of "ol' Red Evans" that we find ourselves faced with a complete traumatic condition due to intense mental exercise out of schedule! Not only that, but after all these months, we might find out that we miss each other... MERCY!!

'YOUR CITY AND MINE'

Summertime

Most of us, young or old, look forward with anticipation to summertime, when as the song goes "The Living Is Easy." We could fill up a whole column on activities that various individuals and families do during the heat of summertime. Most of these activities would be joyous. One of them is not.

Fighting fires is the activity.

In all the United States there is no more fire prone area, no area in which it is harder to fight a fire and no area that sustains a higher watershed loss and greater mud flow damage than our own mountains.

This all was brought to mind by a borate bomber demonstration arranged this week by the United States Forest Service. After many years of experimentation, the use of airplanes for assistance in the control of forest fires has been pretty well perfected.

The U. S. Forest Service has contracts with numerous airplane operators in California — the closest location to Sierra Madre is at the old Chino Airport. Here there is one World War II B-17 (1800 Gal. capacity) and one AT6 (600 Gal. capacity) which are maintained on the line during the daylight hours, seven days a week throughout the high fire hazard period. There is an additional B-17 in back-up and if the need became great enough there is a B-53 with a 5000 gallon capacity which could be made ready.

There is also maintained a 40,000 gallon tank of mixture and a pumping system capable of putting almost 2000 gallons per minute of borate mixture into the planes. The landing, loading and take off procedure has been perfected to the point where there is no lost motion.

The Forest Service and other agencies who are actively working on the forest fire control problem are continually experimenting with various materials to make the drop more effective. Bentonite, drilling mud and other smothering chemicals are presently under test.

It was a real experience to observe the daring and skill of the pilots in the demonstration drops. They placed the red colored drop material right on the target in all of the test runs.

These men risk their lives every time they go into the air since the drops must be made from below 150 feet to be most effective. The crews below are also in serious danger and several men on the ground have been killed from borate drops.

This may have been a long roundabout way of saying "Please be careful of fire always, but especially now. Sierra Madre has faced the horror of a major forest fire twice in ten years. The borate bombers and ground level crews have twice saved the town from loss of homes. Let's not push our luck.

Independence Day — The day hasn't changed, nor the meaning of the celebration — just the method. In other words, do you remember? Do you remember when the Fourth of July meant gathering of the clan, relatives or neighbors for one giant picnic. For weeks ahead the children had perused and haunted the firecracker shop with their nickles and pennies. I remember always having a preponderance of "lady fingers." I think my father convinced me that they were the biggest value for the money, and I am reasonably sure that they were lots less offensive to his nerves than some of the heartier varieties. He kind of brain-washed me on snakes, too, now that I look back. What an exciting experience that was to light that little tablet and have literally yards of snakes all over the place, and they were so quiet. We still have the fried chicken and the potato salad, but do you remember the ice cream served right from the freezer, creamy and good with just a faint suggestion of salt around the edges. Everyone got a turn at the crank and, of course, all the kids fought for the privilege of licking the paddle. Those are MY good old days, and I'm sure in about 20 years I could listen in while my grandchildren are regaled with stories of their parents' Independence Day celebration, and it will no doubt remember as well as my memories have served me with the passage of time.

It sounds so fancy to say the Charles Hardisons and their daughter, Robin, spent the weekend in New York City last week. But that is just what they did and see New York they did, too. In three days they managed to catch tickets to "No Strings" and "She Loves Me," two of the top shows on Broadway. They went on from there to Washington, D.C., where they visited with Charlie's family in a sort of picnic way with relatives dropping in and out. This was the first time that Robin had met half of her kin folks.

Wedding plans are progressing full speed ahead for Gloria Gutierrez. She was feted again last week at a lingerie and crystal shower given by Miss Kristan Kurtz and Miss Marilyn Miller. There were around 17 members of their mutual sorority, Delta Chi Phi of I.H.C., to enjoy the champagne shower. Gloria's fiancé, Mr. John Delaney, will arrive on July 7 from Texas where he is stationed.

Mrs. Richard Fox of Mesa Road was hostess last Friday for a bridge luncheon with her regular "bridge" group, and I can well imagine that the recent wedding of Mrs. Paul Siechert's daughter was a subject of discussion. The other guests were Mrs. Kenneth Christianson, Mrs. John Griffith, Mrs. Robert Baugh, Mrs. William Baugh, Mrs. John Cahoon, Mrs. John Senour and Mrs. George Otte.

It was so good to hear music and laughter coming through the trees from the old "Red Robin Farm" again. The new owners, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Pederson, entertained the Owl League baseball team, sponsored by Snell's Paint Company. They had a garden Shish-kabob party to kind of initiate the house. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Snell, Mr. and Mrs. James Link, Mr. and Mrs. James Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wach, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Blinn, Mr. and Mrs. Norman MacEachern, Mr. and Mrs. George Berger, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dickson, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Rector and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bent. Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCurdy are going to have to go through the whole year listening to the rest of the team telling about the good time they had. They were unable to come, and I might add that they were sorely missed by the whole party.

Bye-the-bye, if you haven't been up on Old House Road lately, you will be in for a surprise. The "Red Robin Farm" is no longer a red house. The Pedersons have just painted it white and it looks just great. They have exciting plans for remodeling the old place, without changing the period. They're doing it slowly and surely, Dottie says, between the measles.

I know that there are a lot of people who will be happy to learn that Lt. Col. Thomas Taylor and Bets are back from France with their family. They are stationed in New Jersey, but are presently visiting out here for just a few days. This week they will be staying with the Robert Muellers on Old House Road.

Home's Arcadia Building Receives Award, Industry Can Be Beautiful

Home Savings and Loan Association's Arcadia branch, 60 E. Huntington Drive, has been saluted with a Los Angeles Beautiful Award for outstanding landscaping and exterior house-keeping.

The award was presented at a recent "Review of Progress" luncheon in the Biltmore Hotel ballroom by a citizen's organization which is sponsored by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce and dedicated to the goal of a clean and beautiful community.

"Industry can be beautiful" is a theme of the community organization, and landscaping of Home's Arcadia building and grounds was declared to be an excellent example, the committee said.

Co-chairmen Rose Navarro and C. M. Deasy of the Los Angeles Beautiful Awards committee complimented the Arcadia branch as "an outstanding contribution to the growing beauty of the Los Angeles area." The award was accepted for the Arcadia branch by Donald C. Nelson, senior vice president and a director of Home Savings.

Home's Arcadia branch opened the doors of its new building in January, 1961. The half million, two-story structure was designed by Millard Sheets and features extensive use of marble and tile on the exterior, coupled with extensive contemporary landscaping.

Los Angeles Beautiful, now 14 years old, was organized during a period of cataclysmic change in the community, when open spaces, orchards and fields of flowers were rapidly disappearing from the Southland scene because of industrial and residential expansion.

"The response to this program to substitute new beauty for old has been tremendous and inspiring," said Mrs. Valley M. Knurson, chairman of Los Angeles Beautiful. "On every side we have growing evidence that the modern city can have its own charm and beauty. We are very happy that the management and employees of Home Savings and Loan have joined in this movement."

The Arcadia building is part of Home's $10 million construction program which will see the use of eight new structures by 1965.

Maybe you weren't around when this classic was a "bargain." But when it comes to value, it wouldn't hold a candle to a 1963 Ford Falcon, Fairlane or Thunderbird at today's clean-up prices. This is a once-a-year saving that includes a whopping big allowance on your ancient runabout. Replace it now with one of our factory-fresh beauties, executive cars or nearly new demonstrators. Fun In the Sun July 17

There will be fun and sun, or just sit, knit and pit your wit at the first of the Shakespear Club Juniors daytime summer swims on Wednesday, July 17, at 11:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. William Thornton on Vallombrosa Drive, Pasadena.

All members and prospective provisionals are invited to this salad pot-luck luncheon and swim party given by the Sports Committee headed by Mrs. William K. Miller, chairman, and assisted by Mrs. Arthur R. Little, Mrs. James T. Coleman, and Mrs. Gene W. Archer.

A highlight of the day will be a display of future arts and crafts projects by Mrs. Howard E. Shanks, chairman of this committee. Saturday, July 27 at 6:30 p.m. a good old fashioned Hootenanny and swim party is being planned for members and their husbands at Mr. and Mrs. William K. Miller's Hacienda Drive home in Arcadia. There will be dancing and a farm style chicken dinner. The sports committee has invited all guests to display their musical talents and provide their own musical background.

Greeting returning vacationers, the final luncheon-swim party of the summer will be hosted by Mrs. William K. Miller. The site of the gathering will be at the home of Mrs. Dale Rogers in Arcadia on September 11, at 11:30 a.m.

Director YWCA Honored at Tea

One of Pasadena's finest community leaders, Miss Louise Emery, will be honored by the Board of Directors of the Pasadena YWCA with a tea July 9 at 78 N. Marengo Ave., Pasadena. The tea marks her retirement as executive director of the Pasadena YWCA.

Since coming to Pasadena in 1946 she has held the position of executive director of the Pasadena YWCA. Some of the advances include study of building needs and resultant campaign for renovation, establishment of the cafeteria operation on a sound financial basis, development of the camp program to its present efficient basis, initiation of the Y-Wives and Big Sister programs, enlargement of the Teenage Department, completion of the parking lot financing and start of the West side project. The budget has almost tripled in the 17-year period with the added participation in three community chests to permit work in adjacent areas.

Following her retirement, she plans a leisurely trip around the world, during which she will inevitably be drawn to visit various YWCAs.

Lynne Louise Carter Becomes Bride of Dennis George Smith

MRS. DENNIS GEORGE SMITH
... nee Lynne Louise Carter

In the presence of approximately 60 guests, Lynne Louise Carter became the bride of Dennis George Smith in the Children's Chapel Neighborhood Church in Pasadena at 7:30 p.m. on June 28.

Lynne, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Lee Carter of 385 Cliff Drive, was given in marriage by her father. The impressive ceremony was performed by the Rev. Noel Vore, and the church was decorated in all white flowers, with interlacing white satin ribbon and flowers down the aisle.

The bride chose a ballerina length gown of chantilly lace with a fingertip veil of silk illusion held by a coronet of seed pearls. Her bridal bouquet was of carnations and miniature orchids.

The mother of the bride chose for her daughter's wedding a blue two piece raw silk costume with matching accessories, long white gloves and white shoes, her corsage was of cymbidium orchids.

The bridegroom's mother chose beige organza over taffeta sheath, as her gown, with this she wore a coral pink hat and beige accessories. Her flowers were beige and coral cymbidiums.

Dennis, the bridegroom, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Smith of 1175 LaLone. He was attended by Howard Peterson, a fraternity brother. The ushers were Jacques DeBrer, Jeb Brighthouse and Rod Cannon.

The reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Liberto, 955 Encanto Dr., Arcadia, with 150 guests in attendance. Rosanne Liberto and Karen Evans were hostesses at the reception and Mrs. Don Lampert was keeper of the guest book. The newly married couple have chosen Hawaii for the destination of their honeymoon trip. They will be away three weeks and will be at home in La Canada after July 20.

Fourth of July At the Arboretum

During the week, including the Day of Independence, the Historical Area in the Los Angeles State and County Arboretum, located at 301 N. Baldwin Ave., Arcadia, will offer displays of yesterday.

The Queen Anne Cottage will be decorated in the manner of the Victorian era, and attendants, who will be assisting Mrs. Malda Boyle, associate curator, on the Fourth, will be costumed in the styles of those days.

Knowledge of the land is presented in the exhibit, "Digging Up the Past." Here a person can see what has happened on the Rancho Santa Anita, including the present site of the Arboretum, from the Pleistocene era up to the present. This exhibit may be seen in the Coach Barn through October, at which time the City of Arcadia celebrates its 60th Anniversary.

The Plant-of-the-week, always an interesting feature at the Arboretum, is the Blue Hibiscus (Hibiscus Huegallii) of Australia. It is located at the west end of Tallac Knoll.

The Arboretum is open daily from 9 a.m. to 6:30 p.m., and admission is free.

The PLAZA Shop Talk

By Sewall Clark

HAVE YOU ever known something that irritates you no matter how much you try to reason with yourself?

Maybe it's the "innate perversity of inanimate objects"; the wad of paper that bounces from the waste basket or the dropped collar button that insists on rolling under the bed where you can't reach it in your clean clothes because it's so dirty under there.

Spiders, too — maybe. BUT WHAT about pedestrians in traffic crosswalks who stop half-way to wave you on, like a traffic cop giving direction?

The gesture is well meant, but dangerous. THEY DON'T seem to realize they should keep walking when you have stopped your car. Suppose, in the hesitation, you both change your minds at the same moment? CRASH!

It has never happened to me, but the idea is still frightening. It's like two people on the same sidewalk, approaching each other. They try to sidestep but end in a bear hug, with apologies.

A SENSE of direction is important in just about everything.

That's why we hope you have a sense of direction when you look for the PLAZA SHOP. It's right off Baldwin, just a few steps east of the Shell station — in a section that is fast becoming known as "The Montecito Plaza."

IT IS a relaxed area, rather rural, but reminiscent of Carmel or Laguna. It may even remind you of Bermuda.

In Bermuda, 1934-35, we had nothing but horse carriages and bicycles, or little boats.

Even then, you had to know where you were going.
